

Jim's club is recruiting new members for the fall semester and he is asked by the club president to post

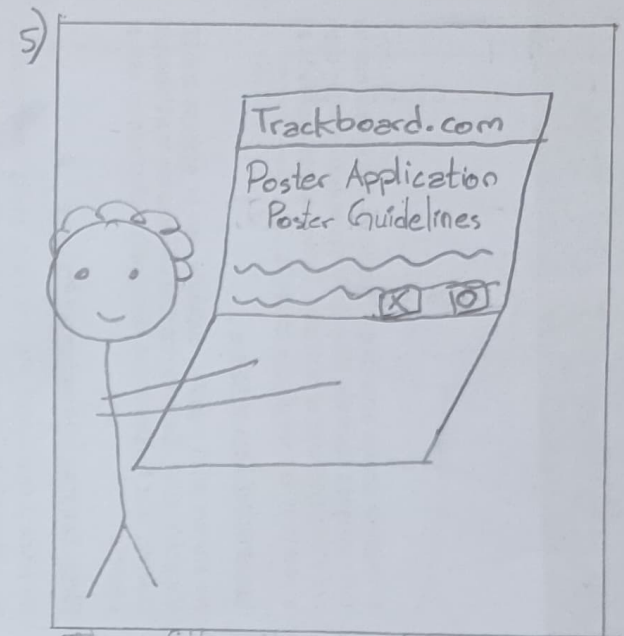

Jim goes to trackboard.com because he can apply online

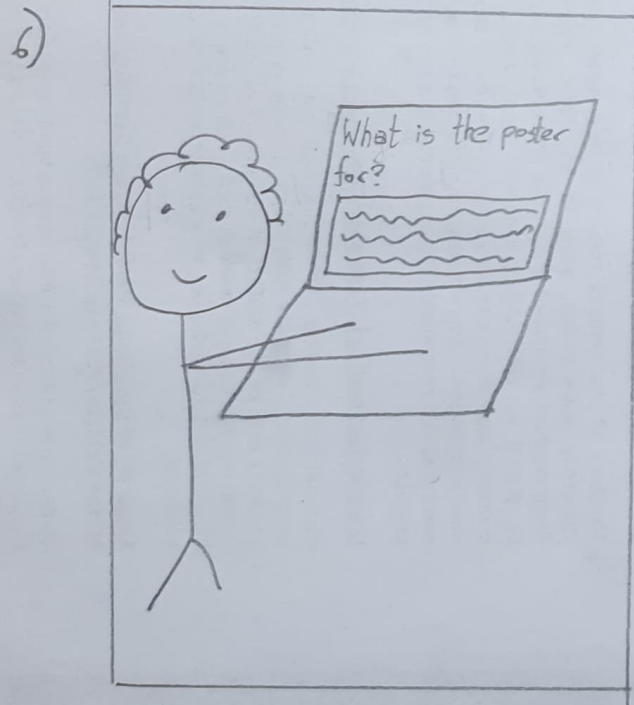

He creates an account using school email

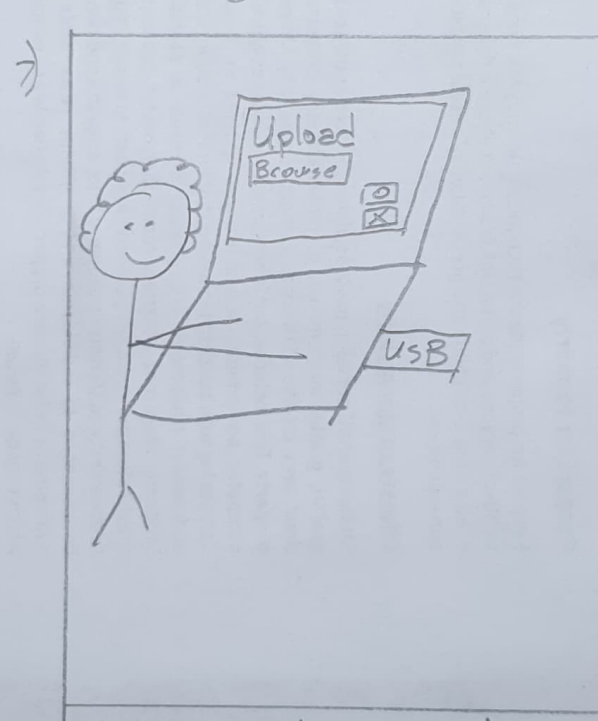

He get an email to verify identity

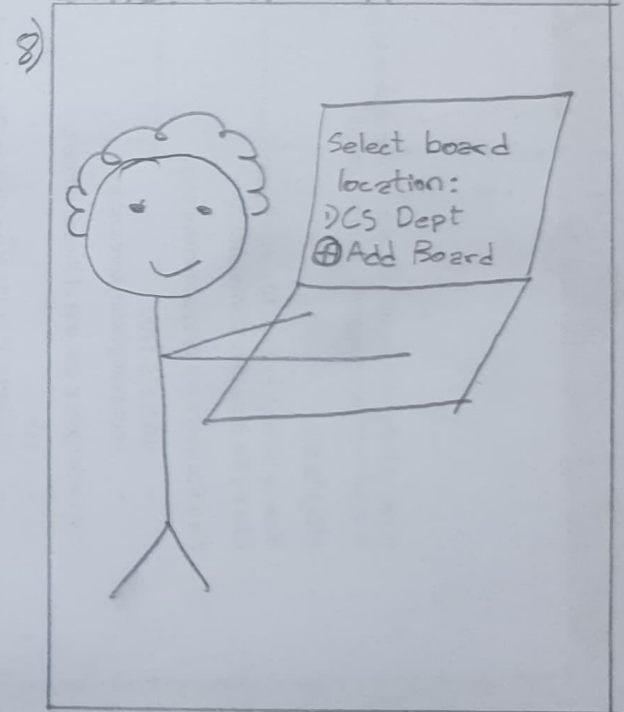

Then using this account he starts to work on poster application

Jim answers questions about poster.

He uploads scanned poster from his USB drive

He selects locations where he wants the poster to go on.

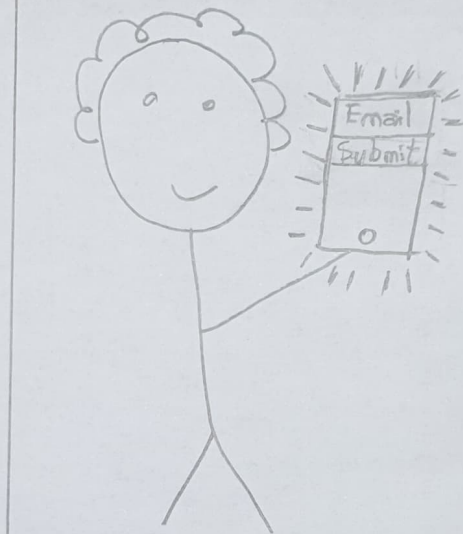

9)

He submits the application

10)

1 second later

Jim gets an email when he submits the application

11)

3 days later

He gets an email from Trackboard when application is approved